

Target Badge

This Outline serves as a preliminary introduction for the new members of the Company Section. Upon completion of the Target Badge training, Brigaders are expected to understand the basic knowledge of the Boys' Brigade, as well as to get themselves equipped with different elementary skills, such as foot-drilling, physical training and first aid.

Course Outline

1 Understanding the Boys' Brigade

- 1.1 Objective, Motto and Emblem
- 1.2 History of the Boys' Brigade around the world and BBHK

2 Uniform

- 2.1 Uniform of Officers and Members of different Sections
- 2.2 Uniform tidying and care
- 2.3 Paying Compliments when in Uniform Do's and Don'ts on wearing Uniform

3 Badges

- 3.1 Anchor Lamb Exploration Badge
- 3.2 Pre-Junior Section Experience Badge
- 3.3 Junior Section Achievement Badge
- 3.4 Company Section Training Badge
- 3.5 Senior Section Training Badge

4 Ranks and Etiquette

- 4.1 Ranks of Non-Commissioned Officers (NCOs) of the Company Section
- 4.2 Etiquette

5 Relationships between Headquarters and Companies

- 5.1 Structure of the Headquarters
- 5.2 Structure of District Committees
- 5.3 Structure of a Company

6 Boys' Brigade Hymns

- 6.1 Will Your Anchor Hold
- 6.2 BB Vesper
- 6.3 Anchor Song

7 Christian Education

- 7.1 Basic understanding of the Bible
- 7.2 The Lord's Prayer
- 7.3 Relationships between the Church and the Company

8 Foot-Drilling

- 8.1 Basic Position
- 8.2 Dressing
- 8.3 Turning at the Halt
- 8.4 Saluting

9 Skills and Practical

- 9.1 Physical Training
- 9.2 First Aid
- 9.3 Knots

Assessment Methods

1. 80% Attendance
2. Brigaders should gain at least 60 marks from both assessment parts
 - Theory Assessment: 60 marks
 - Practical Assessment: 40 marks
 - Theory Assessment can be conducted orally if necessary

Note

The Target Badge is the first badge for the Company Section. Brigaders must first complete the Target Badge before any training and assessment of other badges in the Company Section.